

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE:

THE COOKIE FACTORY, LLC,

Debtor

APPLICATION BY TRUSTEE AND
THE LAW FIRM OF WHICH HE IS A
MEMBER TO ACT AS ATTORNEY FOR THE ESTATE, AND DECLARATION

Case No. 24-11002

Chapter 7

TO: HON. ROBERT E. LITTLEFIELD, JR.
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

MARC S. EHRLICH, ESQ., affirms under penalty of perjury the following:

1. I am the duly qualified and acting Trustee in this case.
2. Applicant requires the assistance of counsel for the following purposes:
 - a. To represent the Trustee in filing any necessary motions ancillary to represent the Trustee in evaluating a potential Fraudulent Conveyance Cause of Action.
3. It is in the best interest of this estate and its economical administration that Ehrlich Law Firm, PC of which applicant is a member, be authorized to act as attorney for the Trustee of the estate for the following reasons:
 - a. To insure that all legal documents submitted to the Court by the Trustee are proper and adequate;
 - b. To insure that all outstanding assets of the bankruptcy estate are properly and swiftly collected, by litigation if necessary.

4. The Court has the power to authorize said employment pursuant to 11 U.S.C.

Section 327(d) which reads as follows:

"The Court may authorize the Trustee to act as attorney or accountant for the estate if such authorization is in the best interest of the estate."

5. Applicant shall make application to be paid as an administrative expense in such amounts as this Court may hereafter determine and allow only upon subsequent application to this Court.
